Re: Declaration of Bona Fide Marriage

Dear Sir or Madam,

My name is [Your Full Name], and I am writing to confirm the bona fide nature of my marriage to [Spouse's Full Name]. We were married on [Wedding Date] in [City, State], and our relationship is founded on love, trust, and mutual commitment.

I first met [Spouse's Name] on [Date of First Meeting] through [How You Met]. From the beginning, we shared a deep connection, and over time, that bond has only grown stronger. We decided to marry because we realized we wanted to build a life together, sharing our core values and dreams for the future. Throughout our relationship, we've supported each other through [mention any challenges you've faced together], which has brought us even closer.

To further demonstrate the authenticity of our marriage, here are some key aspects of our life together:

1. We've been living together at [your shared address] since [move-in date], and I've attached copies of our lease agreements and shared utility bills.
2. We celebrate significant milestones together—birthdays, anniversaries, and holidays. I've included photos from these special moments to illustrate our journey as a couple.
3. We've made long-term plans, including [mention joint plans, like travel, homeownership, or family decisions].
4. [If applicable: We have children together, and we're both deeply involved in raising them.]

We are also fortunate to have the full support of our family and friends, many of whom have witnessed our relationship firsthand. I've included letters from some of them to further attest to the genuine nature of our marriage.

I'm deeply committed to building a life with [Spouse's Name], and I believe the enclosed documentation and my testimony reflect the sincere and genuine nature of our marriage.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,
